

Dear Mr. President:

I warmly welcome your message of congratulations on my swearing-in as President of the United States and appreciate your encouragement and support.

We have challenges ahead that, in partnership and on common ground, I believe we can overcome. We also have tremendous opportunities to advance shared goals, promote global stability, and achieve peace and prosperity. One such shared goal is Serbia's accession to the European Union, which we continue to support as the surest path to a stable and prosperous future for your country. On the basis of our nations' shared values, I look forward to further strengthening our bilateral relations.

Sincerely,

/s/

Donald J. Trump
